

Project for Mtho -- Keith Vanderlinde

- start by writing down the likelihood function / chi-sq given a model sky and set of gains to be matched against measured visibilities V_{ij}
- generate simulated visibilities for a simple sky (e.g. point source) and a simple set of gridded antennas with perturbed gains
- implement a least-squares fitting algorithm to recover gains and uncertainties from the visibility data